Your Decree Is A Bridge Between Realms November 4, 2025 Suzi Armstrong

God used the sounding of the shofar to set boundaries around Mount Sinai and to give instructions to the nation of Israel regarding approaching the mountain. The shofar is used at Rosh Hashanah as a call to repentance and remembering that God is sovereign. Blowing the shofar was used as a battle cry and signal to rally the troops and how to move in war. God moves in and through sound. In the beginning, sound was not created – it already existed in Him as He spoke, “Let there be light”. Creation began and boundaries were set in place through a sound.

Sound is a bridge between realms or dimensions. Orders of angels are assigned to sound. Angels responded when Gideon used the sound of shofars and broken glass to defeat the Midianites. Angels conquered the enemy when King Hezekiah sent singers to worship and praise the Lord. When specific sounds or decrees are released, it activates the angels assigned to that sound. God has a sound, a decree, that the angels are activated by and respond to. Releasing the decree of the Lord is not just a sound – it carries intention. Life and death are in the power of the tongue. With the same tongue we can curse or bless. Our voice is a shofar.

Every time we speak out what God is speaking, that sound carries intention or thought. It is like a spiritual data stream. It carries light and activates dormant spiritual capacities. Your decree awakens God’s original intent and sets things in motion. This activates the advancement and establishing of God’s Kingdom.

Exodus 19.19 NIV

¹⁹ As the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and the voice of God answered him.

- “Grew louder” in Hebrew means to transition or move forward.
- When our sound arises through the decrees we release, that sound entangles the Heavenly realms – there is a partnership with our decree and Heaven. It activates angels and shifts atmospheres.
- When decrees are aligned with God’s intention it becomes the magnet of unity between realms. Why is this important? Because darkness fragments and scatters – God’s sound brings what is fragmented and scattered back together and establishes identity and destiny.

Psalms 47.5-6 NIV

⁵ God has ascended amid shouts of joy,
the Lord amid the sounding of trumpets.

⁶ Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises.

Isaiah 58.1 ESV

lift up your voice like a trumpet;
declare to my people...

Recently I was on a prayer assignment in Port Huron in St. Clair County where the mouth of the St Clair River comes out of Lake Huron, then continues through Lake St. Clair, and continues as the Detroit River. By the Spirit of God, I could see that this was a birthing chamber, i.e. manifesto.

James 1.21 TPT

²¹ So this is why we abandon everything morally impure and all forms of wicked conduct. Instead, with a sensitive spirit we absorb God's Word, which has been implanted within our nature, for the Word of Life has power to continually deliver us.

- Our City, the land, and the atmosphere absorb the words we speak and respond. Why is this important? What you speak becomes a portal where Heaven and earth meet.
- We are to release the sound, the word, Heaven is speaking. All of creation is eagerly waiting for the revealing of the sons of God. Why? Because their voice carries the word of restoration.
- Sound co-creates and operates as governance.

Leviticus 25.9-10 NIV

⁹ Then have the trumpet sounded everywhere on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement sound the trumpet throughout your land. ¹⁰ Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; each of you is to return to your family property and to your own clan.

- The jubilee trumpet is the sound that brings in restoration.
- Lost inheritance returns – the sound is a bridge that connects realms in the heavenlies that releases inheritance.
- Everything that you have lost is on its way back to you because of the sound that you release.
- Every shofar sound that you release by faith calls back the fragments of your inheritance.
- Your destiny has a sound – it was spoken by God – it is brought back together by the sound of God. Angels harken to His voice.

Isaiah 5.26 ESV

²⁶ He will raise a signal for nations far away, and whistle for them from the ends of the earth; and behold, quickly, speedily they come!

- There is a sound that gathers.
